

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, community associations, neighborhood associations, condominiums, regimes, and cooperatives throughout South Carolina and the nation improve and enhance the quality of life for our residents; and

WHEREAS, irrespective of size, location, income level, or type of community, these associations allow property owners to preserve and build their neighborhood's value while shaping the quality of life their community enjoys; and

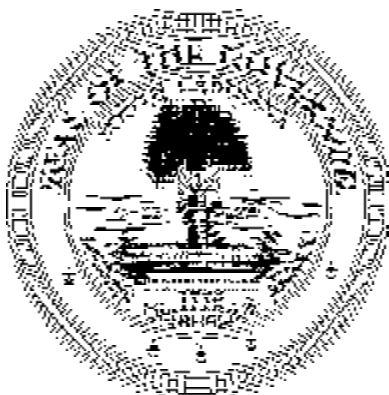

WHEREAS, association leaders, community volunteers, community managers, reserves specialists, CPAs, and other professionals who serve in the community associations field are dedicated to making and keeping our communities strong; and

WHEREAS, the 2003 observance of Community Associations Day calls attention to the positive impact these associations have on the well-being and quality of life of our residents.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 13, 2003, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together to encourage teamwork and cooperation for the betterment of all our communities.
